A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

Hello Mar Vista,

So, it is that time of year again when holidays are coming at you from left and right, throwing some heartwarming, enlightening opportunities to gain community service.

This season, please care to join in on events that help people in need; spread the joy in spirit of this time-of-year.

Also, please note that big events are in store for our division as we prepare for DCON, which may be expensive, but can be fundraised for so more can enjoy the fun.

Happy Holidays,
Mar Vista.

Thank you for Reading,
Celine Calpo

Letter from the Treasurer

Hey everyone! DCON is coming up, so please try to provide some input when it comes to fundraising. Fundraising is a great way to help people who can't afford the price.

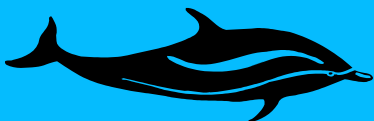

If we all work together to fundraise for our club, we can do a lot, such as lowering the cost of certain events (other than DCON) and even donate to different charities, for example PTP or the ELIMINATE Project.

Thanks,
Kimberly Buendia

KEY CLUB

Fall Rally

Fall Rally is a huge district event where, in essence, you have fun.

Members of the Cal - Nev- Ha District met up at Six Flags all "spirited out" and immediately got down to business: they attended the rally.

The rally consisted of brief introductions,

Mar Vista High Key Club members show their Division 11 spirit.

Mariko Nakawatase and Christia Ramirez hold up a sign offering free hugs; they most likely got many in return. letting members know who's in charge of Key Club and KIWANIS (Key Club International's adult counterpart) and the progress of the organization as a whole. Then, the Lieutenant Governors were auctioned off in order to raise money for PTP, one of Key Club's top priorities.

At the end of the rally, members enjoyed the thrill of the rides at Six Flags, while meeting tons of new Key Clubbers and receiving numerous free hugs.

"It was so crazy," freshman Viola Peak said. "It was rowdy, but great."

Dannielle Griffin, a junior, added, "It was really fun and everyone was spirited. Everyone was also super nice. I learned a lot about what Key Club really is, how officers work, and it motivated me and inspired me to do more community service.

Viola Peak and Danielle Griffin seem to be true to their words, as they're seen here having fun at Fall Rally with friends.
